Discussion:

- Discuss the marriage of the lamb – this is a symbolic description of unity between believers and Christ used many times (for example Matthew 25, Revelation 21).
- Discuss the confusion of the term. The “bride” of Christ is a term which seems to apply to both the church specifically, and to all believers from all ages. If the latter is the true “bride” of Christ, then the implications of the city and the Church being so named, are contextual in scope – not conflicting with the greater identification. This is similar to the language used for both universal Church and each local church individually, as the “church.”
- Note the tendency for people to worship angels or to be terrified of them, consider the implications

Open Question:

What do you want to get out of church camp?
