

End Times Prophecy

This Week:

Lesson: Dispensations and Jewish Distinctions

Scripture: Genesis to Revelation

Handout: Intro to Dispensations

Next Week:

Homework Scripture Read: Genesis 12:1-25:11

Genesis 2:15-17, 3	Adam & Eve (Innocence to Conscience)
Genesis 6:1-3, 7:1, 9:1-17	Noah (Conscience to Human Government)
Genesis 12:1-3⁺⁺	Abraham (Promise)
Exodus 19:1-8, 24:1-8, 9-13	Moses (Law)
Matthew 21:1-11, 27:50-53 (33-54)	Jesus (Law to Grace)
Acts 10-11	Peter (Grace)
Revelation 20:1-10	Jesus (Kingdom)

Discussion:

- Note: God has made specific and distinct promises and covenants with specific individuals and groups at specific times – the value of defining dispensations is in recognizing these distinctions systematically, as a context for understanding the meaning and applicability of these Scriptures.
- Discuss the relationship between saved Jews and the Church, and between unsaved Jews and the Gentiles/nations.
- Discuss the importance of Jewish promises and covenants in a study of end-time prophecies.
